EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

THE SELF IS OUR REAL SOULMATE: Pretension is escapism that prevents us from facing life's challenges. Simple act of acknowledging facts as they are, is the way forward. Every human being has two levels of existence. One, the ego-fed maya and the other is that of the true Self, consciousness. The first may bring about success in the material world but is a false self. The second is the innermost soul, where truth reigns; a world of light without shadows. This state of awareness is rooted in the authentic Self, the non-dual advaita. Our real sakha, soul-mate, is our spirit. The answer to all your problems lies here, with you, within you. Greater self-understanding can help us progress both psychologically and spiritually. The process of self-exploration can provide insights to the mystery of our identity. We need to rekindle our inner light to come face to face with our soul. Every experience in life is important in fulfilling life's purpose — to defeat the ego and realise the illusory nature of the world we live in. Honesty and resoluteness can surmount any situation, defeat any adversary, beat any oppressive force just as light dispels darkness. According to the Chandogya Upanishad, as the Sun arises, it removes the darkness of night and fear of living. One who understands what causes the Sun to have these qualities, becomes the destroyer of all fear in the form of birth and death, and also the cause of fear and darkness in the form of ignorance. An enlightened Self can reveal new dimensions as the unknown is limitless. — Soma Chakravertty in The Times of India

Hubby catches wife putting boric acid in his coffee

New York: A 70-year-old woman from Queens, New York, was recently arrested after her husband caught her lacing his coffee with boric acid.

Robert Baron first noticed that the food his wife cooked for him tasted funny back in September 0f last year. He also started feeling sick after meals, and on some occasion he would get so tired that he slept for 15 hours at a time. Suspecting that something fishy was going on, the 63-year-old man installed a small surveillance camera in the kitchen, without telling his wife of 11 years, Suncha Tinevra. That's how he caught his partner lacing his coffee with a chemical used to kill cockroaches.

On checking the camera, Baron saw his wife dump some sort of powder into his coffee and soon reported his wife to the police. Tinevra was arrested and the coffee pot and coffee from the couple's home were seized for testing. It turned out that the elderly woman had dumped boric acid into her husband's coffee, which she later admitted adding that it was not the first time.

Woman shocked to discover intruder living in house attic

Rockhampton: A mother of three children is now afraid to sleep in her own home after discovering that an intruder had been living in her attic.

Monica Green from Rockhampton in Queensland, had noticed weird things around her house for a while, but she never really worried, dismissing them as coincidences or figments of her imagination. But on Monday, after coming home with her kids from a doctor's appointment, Monica couldn't ignore the obvious anymore. The backdoor was wide-open, the air-conditioning and the TV were on, and there was a half-eaten plate of chicken nuggets in the kitchen. She immediately called the Police, who told her that whoever had broken into her home, had probably been living there a while.

REALLY...?

- The original oranges from Southeast Asia were a tangerine-pomelo hybrid, and they were actually green. In fact, oranges in warmer regions like Vietnam and Thailand still stay green through maturity. For more interesting facts, find out which "orange" came first: the colour or the fruit.
- Yes, there was a real John Chapman who planted thousands of apple trees on US soil. But the apples on those trees were much more bitter than the ones you'd find in the supermarket today. "Johnny Appleseed" didn't expect his fruits to be eaten whole, but rather made into hard apple cider.

State Budget size to reduce for 2021-22: CM

BSY unveils 11-ft. tall statue of Akkamahadevi in city

Mysuru, Jan. 23 (PM,RK& SSV)- With resource mobilisation taking a nosedive due to COVID-19 pandemic for last 10 months, the size of Karnataka Budget for the year 2021-22 will be smaller, said Chief Minister B.S. Yediyurappa.

Talking to reporters on his arrival at Mysore Airport in Mandakalli to participate in a slew of programmes in city this morning, he said the size of the State Budget last year was Rs. 2.37 lakh crore, which would be reduced this year due to the impact of Coronavirus on the State economy.

No dearth of funds

Ruling out dearth of funds to deal with COVID-19 pandemic, Yediyurappa said the contagion had decreased by almost 90 percent in the State. But, there was no shortage of funds to provide COVID-19 treatment, he noted.

District Minister S.T. Somashekar accompanied the CM from Bengaluru to Mysuru. MP Pratap Simha, MLAs, S.A. Ramdas and L. Nagendra, former MLC C.H. Vijayashankar, Zoo Authority of Karnataka Chairman L.R. Mahadevaswamy, City BJP President T.S. Srivatsa, Karnataka State Safai Karmachari Commission Chairman M. Shivanna and others were present at the Airport.

Akkamahadevi Statue

Chief Minister Yediyurappa called upon people to emulate the preachings of Akkamahadevi, a poetess, who fought against exploitation of women in the 12th century.

He was speaking after unveiling the 11-ft tall and 980- kg bronze Statue of Akkamahadevi at J.P. Nagar in city, installed under the aegis of J.P. Nagar Sharana Vedike this morning.

The CM said that Akkamahadevi was the first poetess and one among the prominent faces in Sharana Chaluvali that took place nearly 800 years ago. She has enriched Kannada Vachana Sahitya through her writings and created social awakening by propagating women empowerment. One of her popular Vachanas "Bettadamelondu Maneya Maadi" has a lot of philosophical meaning which was relevant even today. "Akka involved herself in Kalyana Kranthi and was in forefront of Sharana Chaluvali," he noted.

Stressing on purity of atma, both inner and outer, Yediyurappa said Akkamahadevi advocated Atma Kalyana, Jana Kalyana and Loka Kalyana. She denounced the worldly life at an early age and embraced Veerashaivism to popularise Sharana Chaluvali along with other Sharanas like Basavanna and Allamaprabhu.

Aadhaar Seva Kendras begin offline and online services

People availing Aadhaar-related services at one of the Aadhaar Seva Kendras in city.

Mysuru, Jan. 23 (MTY&BCT)- Mysuru's two Aadhaar Seva Kendras (ASK), operated by the Unique Identification Authority of India (UIDAI) at Vijayanagar First Stage and at Saraswathipuram have been offering both online and offline services.

These services were hampered in the last few months owing to COVID-19 pandemic. Now the services have resumed in full scale and per day more than 1,200 people are availing the services.

While the Aadhaar Seva Kendra at Saraswathipuram is located above Blue Dart Couriers on Kamakshi Hospital Road, the Seva Kendra at Vijayanagar First Stage is located at CCK Complex, New Kalidasa Road, opposite MUDA Complex.

People can avail Aadhaar-related services such as enrolment and updations of address, name, gender, date of birth, mobile number, e-mail ID, photo and biometrics, including photo, finger print and iris.

UIDAI has also provided the facility to book appointments online by visiting the ask.uidai.gov.in wherein one can choose their convenient date and time to avail the services. The Aadhaar Seva Kendra is open from 9.30 am to 5.30 pm everyday.

For all other updates/corrections, a nominal fee of Rs. 50 will be charged per transaction. Apart from residents of Mysuru, people from other areas and villages also can avail the Aadhaar-related services here. As offline facilities were absent during the peak of COVID pandemic, many rural people were approaching local cyber centres that would charge anywhere between Rs. 100 and Rs. 150 per appointment.

Now that both Seva Kendras are functioning, they can straightaway head there for offline appointments. Separate counters have been opened at the centres for people who have not taken online appointments and utmost precautions are taken while enrolling people or when changes are made to the Aadhaar cards. These include sanitisation of chairs, thermal screening and hand sanitising before people give their biometrics. The employees at the centres too wear protective gear.

Aadhaar card can be generated for all children below 5 years including new-borns and no biometrics of the child is taken in this case as the fingerprints take years to develop. Only the child's photograph is taken for Aadhaar. Once the child is five years old, he has to provide the biometric data of all 10 fingers and iris scan and photograph is also taken during the process. The same process has to be repeated when the child attains the age of 15 years as fingerprints and iris do change.

Aadhaar enrolment and mandatory biometric update of children from five to 15 years of age is absolutely free of cost. Rs. 50 is charge for all general updates in the Aadhaar card per person. A fee of Rs. 30 is charged for downloading Aadhaar card and to avail colour prints.

A complete change in the Aadhaar card including biometrics and iris scan will attract a fee of Rs. 100.

Two arrested for throwing burning tyre on elephant causing its death

Mysuru, Jan. 23 (MTY&BCT)- A 40-year-old wild elephant which strayed into a resort near Masinagudi of Nilgiris District in Tamil Nadu, was killed by an act of human cruelty as a burning tyre and clothes were hurled at it by the staff of a private resort at Mavanallah.

Tamil Nadu Forest Department officials said the badly injured elephant, bleeding in its ears, was found by some Forest Department guards in Masinagudi in the end of December, but it died before it could be taken for treatment to a facility at the Mudumalai Forest Range. On conducting an autopsy, officials realised that severe injuries had been caused because of the burns.

The arrested have been identified as Raymond Teen, the resort owner and Prashant, a staffer. One more accused in the case Ricky Rayan is absconding. The incident occurred around Dec. 27 or Dec. 28 and the injured elephant was spotted in the first week of January.

According to officials, the accused had hurled a burning tyre and clothes on the elephant, which was roaming near their resort. Later, the elephant was spotted groaning in pain near the Singara Forest Range. The elephant was tranquillised and the officials decided to treat the elephant that had several bleeding wounds on its back.

Forest officials had developed a close bond with the injured elephant after treating it for over a month. To provide better treatment, the officers decided to shift the tusker to an elephant camp in Mudumalai Forest Range. With the help of four other Kumki elephants, the injured animal was put on a truck. However, the elephant died on the way, near Theppakadu.

Shocked by its death, a forest guard bade a tearful goodbye to the elephant and the video clip had gone viral on social media. In the moving clip, Pollan, the forester was seen crying and gently stroking the elephant's trunk and saying, "Whom will I give fruits to hereafter?"

After the tusker died, special teams were formed to identify the perpetrators of the crime. Meanwhile, the investigators caught hold of a video clip that showed the tyre in flames being hurled on the animal. The video showed the fleeing elephant trumpeting in pain. Later, Prasad and Raymond were arrested.

Investigation revealed that the accused were under the influence of alcohol. Officials said that it seemed that the resort workers were trying to scare the elephant away by throwing something on fire towards it. If it was a stick or some other article it would have hit the elephant and fallen. But since it was a tyre, it got stuck to the elephant's ears for much longer, leaving the elephant in trauma.

Orders have been passed to seal the resort. The owners of the property were running a homestay in the upper floor of the building with four rooms.

Clear obstructions for free flow of storm water

Sir,

This refers to the news item titled "Residents warned against letting rainwater into UGD system: MCC sets 15-day deadline" in Star of Mysore dated Jan. 17.

While appreciating the seriousness exhibited by MCC in this issue in the form of strict warning and threat to impose fine, I would urge the authorities to show equal seriousness to clear all the obstructions to the free flow of storm water at every entry passage of residence and vacant sites.

If the above problem is not resolved simultaneously with the UGD issue, there will be a huge flooding in front of all the houses and on the roads to become breeding ground for mosquitoes during rainy days.

It becomes very difficult to even come out of the house or walk on the roads. Let it not become the proverbial saying, the treatment becoming worse than the disease.

Restore Medical Education portfolio for better management of vaccine drive: Dr. Sudhakar

Dr. K. Sudhakar

Bengaluru, Jan. 23 (SSV)- Indicating possible second Coronavirus wave in Karnataka in February, Health and Family Welfare Minister, Dr. K. Sudhakar has appealed Chief Minister B.S.Yediyurappa to restore him Medical Education portfolio for betterment management of COVID-19 pandemic as well as ongoing vaccine drive.

"Having these two portfolios together will be of great help, especially in the wake of scientists predicting second wave of Corona in February. So, it needs a lot of advance planning to check the contagion. The CM will be apprised about it", he told reporters here yesterday.

The Minister said the pandemic had virtually gone out of control when both these portfolios were handled by two Ministers. Understanding this, Yediyurappa gave him both portfolios with which the COVID-19 situation was brought under control due to planning. With vaccine drive going on in full swing now, it would be better if both Health and Medical Education portfolios remained with one Minister, he added.

Inoculated: Dr. Sudhakar said so far, 1,38,656 people had been inoculated in the State of which only a few had mild side effects. Fortunately, there has been no death of any vaccinated health worker anywhere in the State. While Covishield had been administered to 1,36,882 persons, Covaxin had been given to 1,774 healthcare workers. Among them, hardly 2 to 3.5 per cent of people had mild side effects. Of total 8, 47, 908 people registered for vaccination in the first round, 3,27,201 were Government Healthcare workers and 4,45,389 were Private healthcare staff. A second consignment of 1,46,240 vials of Covaxin vaccine arrived on Friday. "Some are hesitant to take vaccine due to rumours. But they have failed to understand that the vaccine will protect from the pandemic. Our biggest challenge will be to vaccinate 1.5 crore to 2 crore people of Karnataka in the coming days," he noted.

Strengthen CM's hand: "We are honestly working to strengthen the CM's hand. It was a political suicidal attempt to resign from Congress Party and join BJP. But I won the Chikkaballapur seat with increased vote margin than 2018 Assembly polls. Similarly, Hoskote MLA MTB Nagaraj, who was a Minister in Congress-JD(S) coalition Government, resigned having faith in me. It is my duty to protect the interest of all my colleagues and it is the prerogative of the CM to allocate portfolio. Being a Cabinet member, I am working to bring good name to the Government and the Party. The portfolios should have been allocated by considering experts opinion and the ongoing vaccination drive," he said.

Tale of two Palaces

Can the Royals revive the Jewel on the Hill?

Going by recent reports, Lalitha Mahal Palace Hotel may very well become Taj Lalitha Mahal Palace Hotel if it is leased to Indian Hotels Company Limited (IHCL), a group company of TATA's under which the famed luxury hotel chain, Taj Hotels are managed.

Our city's second largest Royal Palace, Lalitha Mahal Palace, has been waiting for a resurrection for nearly half a century now. The wait has been on since 1973 when it was first handed over to India Tourism Development Corporation (ITDC), a government body that did very little to, let alone enhance its grandeur, but even to retain its fading glory.

But it was not always like this. According to Arun Shourie, the man in charge of divesting during the NDA government, in his book 'Governance and the sclerosis that has set in' says, "In 2002 when a case was made to divest hotels under ITDC, Lalitha Mahal Palace Hotel in Mysuru was the only ITDC Hotel in the whole country that was making a profit." In fact, it remained profitable until the 6th Pay Commission, when a dish-washer in Lalitha Mahal was paid Rs.18,000! And a receptionist Rs.45,000! If this is the pay structure, how could a Hotel survive, let alone compete and make profit?

The other reason was the inability to upgrade rooms. Even a small plumbing work in the Hotel required permission from the State Tourism Department, which owned the hotel. Why? Because to fix the old pipes one had to remove the tiles. And tiles were deemed heritage!

At the moment, Jungle Lodges and Resorts, a State government body, has been given permission to run Lalitha Mahal Palace Hotel but this State-run company manages Lodges in the Jungles, as its name suggests.

Falaknuma Palace Hotel, Hyderabad.

It doesn't have any experience running a luxury hotel or maintaining a heritage structure.

More importantly it does not have the budget to restore the grandeur of a structure such as Lalitha Mahal Palace. That is why the government, while calling a global tender to lease Lalitha Mahal Palace, must strongly consider the company's history and expertise in not only managing and restoring heritage properties but also pay attention to the company's financial prowess to restore the Palace, just as much as it considers the financial returns to the government.

The resurrection of Lalitha Mahal Palace is very important to Mysuru. It will give a new lease of life to our city as a tourist city as one of Royal history and heritage. When a professional hotel group takes it over, be it Taj, Oberoi or ITC, they will create not only our city's first truly five-star hotel, but also sell our city to high net worth tourists while making the hotel itself a tourist attraction.

We have an example in that with what Taj Hotels did to the once dilapidating Falaknuma Palace Hotel in Hyderabad. Once Taj took over the property, they spent crores to renovate it and today that hotel has become a tourist destination as much as it is a hotel.

The hotel is open to tourists on weekends, where along with guided tour of the Palace you also get a luxurious high tea at a high price of Rs. 3,000 per head! This high tea session is available in Lalitha Mahal too, but it is nowhere as popular, luxurious, educational or awe-inspiring as it should be.

While the State government hands over Lalitha Mahal Palace to a professional hotel group may be they can also pay attention to other tourism enhancing opportunities.

There are small achievable projects the Tourism Minister can complete which will boost tourism — Control the parking and fake sandalwood mafia around tourist spots; Vacate the illegal mutton stalls, hotels and saree shops that line either side of the road leading to Chamundi Hill; Build parking complex for Zoo; Throw open Government Sandalwood Oil Factory & Silk Factory for tourists; Hold weekend cultural programmes at the Palace premises. And finally construct good road to KRS and maintain the Brindavan Gardens to name a few.

For now, let's hope this government achieves what previous governments could not — restore Lalitha Mahal to its original glory.

While Lalitha Mahal Palace can be a luxurious Palace Hotel, the truly luxurious hotel in Mysuru, if revived, has to be the Rajendra Vilas Palace atop the Hill. It was and still can be a luxury hotel with a hill station feel in the heart of a city, an unmatchable USP.

Three years ago speaking to SOM, Pramoda Devi Wadiyar, 'Trustee' of the property, when asked if she was willing for a joint venture to run the Rajendra Vilas, she said, "I am willing to consider it and have had a discussion. However, my first priority is to retain the property. I do not want to relinquish the ownership at any cost. In the last three-and-a-half years, I have cleared a lot of liabilities. Today my ancestors and my husband can be proud of me."

We hope she can give this slice of heaven in Mysuru to a professional company, which would really boost Mysuru's image as a tourist city. We are sure her husband, the late Srikantadatta Narasimharaja Wadiyar would love to see this jewel on the hill sparkle, and after all he always felt he was a "hotelier."

This reminds me of the interview I had with Wadiyar in 2008 when he was busy restoring the Rajendra Vilas Palace and hoped to restore the glory of the Palace on the hill. Here is an excerpt from that interview:

SOM : You are a big believer in Vaastu and Astrology. So is the Rajendra Vilas built according to Vaastu?

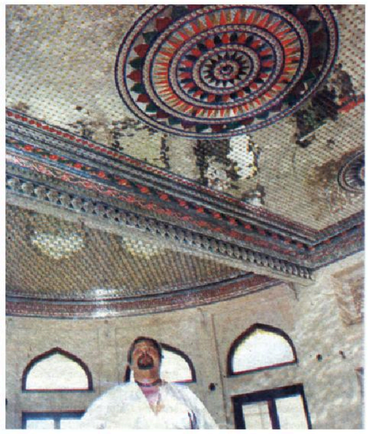
Wadiyar: We have spent a considerable amount of money and time to make it as per vaastu. In this Palace vaastu principles had not been taken into consideration at all. First of all, the building is facing North East, which is a no no. The direction which vaastu tells a person to build a house is either East or North. So anything oriented to the North East, North West, South West and South East are considered what is called Kaataaya. It's not good Aaya. So the direction of North East is not considered very good. Now we have this North Eastern portion which is a semi-circular area.

The semi-circle was built so that two negatives make a positive. Like North East is a negative area, so the semi-circular structure together will make a positive area. But we had two toilets on this area, which were facing exactly North East. It was considered not very good. So we had to leave the whole thing and then we decided that on top shall be a suite and the one below it shall be a restaurant facing the city and the restaurant will have glass conservatory because as you know the problem here, mosquitoes.

The view is a major attraction, so we need to have people looking down and seeing the view of the city and enjoying their drink or having something to eat rather than trying to rid themselves of mosquitoes.

SOM: So the restaurant is going to have a glass cover so the customers can enjoy unrestricted view of the city?

Wadiyar: Yes, we'll have a restaurant down here and on top will be a suite. And we are going to have two bathrooms which will have completely tiled glass. The sides will all be tiled with glass with a tint, so people in the bathroom can see outside, but people from the outside cannot see inside. It is a one-way mirror glass.



Wadiyar inspecting the colourful mirror and glass ceiling inside Rajendra Vilas Palace in 2008.

SOM: Rajendra Vilas Palace has never had a successful run as a hotel. First it was the Welcome Group, then it was ...

Wadiyar: No, no, no ...

SOM: What I'm asking is, considering its history or rather track record, are you apprehensive about it being a successful hotel?

Wadiyar: Let me tell you one thing. Welcome Group was very good with us. But then of course, we had the Taj Group. Somehow we had problems getting along with them. Then in 1997, we had to close this hotel and, of course, after having closed it down, we got the possession of this property in 2000 from Taj. And from then onwards we started doing the renovation. The building was in a bad shape. Now finally we have done all the necessary structural changes and renovations. I am quite pleased with the vaastu that we've been able to make.

SOM: Won't it be easier to just give it to Leela Hotels or Oberoi Hotels who have been successful at managing grand hotels?

Wadiyar: I am not interested in Leela. After all, our input is a few crores but the return on this property shall be extremely high. We're not interested in giving it to someone else. It is my property and I will take care of it. To add, I have the pleasure of doing up the place. I have spent a lot of my time and effort in this project. Moreover, this was envisaged to be done by my grand uncle.

And you see, I also considered the fact that, what is going to be my competition in Mysuru. I also went over my advantages and disadvantages. The advantage that we have is that we have an outstanding location. It has a fantastic view and I don't think anywhere in Mysuru you will get a property with this kind of view and location. And the disadvantages, yes, it's not close to the city. So invariably, people will have to drive up quite a distance. Lalitha Mahal, which is our main competitor, may be an extremely large and palatial building, but we have an unmatched view of the city. What is Lalitha Mahal known for? Rolling marble floor, high ceiling, ornamental light fittings and the great amount of plaster work and the wedge wood kind of work. We too want to have marble staircase here and the landing will also be in marble. We'll have these canisters on the side, with a banister going up. We'll have all those lights which you have in Lalitha Mahal. I had to do this because I want to charge Lalitha Mahal rates. We have the room size, only the ornamentation was required. Then, of course, we had to do this because I want to be number one. In Ooty, I'm number one. In other places I could be number one, but in Mysuru it is going to be difficult with Lalitha Mahal around. But with the renovation and the location I believe that we have an advantage over the bigger Lalitha Mahal Palace Hotel.

SOM: Where are the architects from?

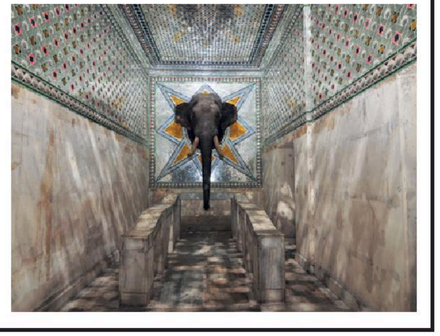
Wadiyar: The architect is sitting in front of you. (laughs)

SOM: What about the interiors?

Wadiyar: The designs are given by me, the concept has been done by me, the execution is done by someone else. This project is my baby.

SOM: So what are you now, a politician, an official (KSCA) or a hotelier?

Wadiyar: I was a hotelier always. Even when I was a politician I was a hotelier.



While Lalitha Mahal Palace Hotel may very well be on its way to regaining its glory, let's hope Pramoda Devi Wadiyar too will find a worthy company to manage the brightest jewel in Mysuru's architectural landscape, the fabulously located and majestic Palace on the Hill — Rajendra Vilas Palace. And in doing so bring her late husband late Srikantadatta Narasimharaja Wadiyar's dream to fruition — a mark of royalty shining on the Hill in the middle of a Royal city.

BJP MLA Yatnal wants 'One family One post' rule in party

To write letter to PM Modi and BJP National Prez Nadda

Bengaluru, Jan. 23 (SSV)- Vijayapura BJP MLA Basangouda Patil Yatnal, who has launched a tirade against Chief Minister B.S. Yediyurappa, has urged the Party High Command to implement 'One family One post' rule to check dynastic politics in the State.

Yatnal

Talking to reporters at Vidhana Soudha here on Wednesday, he wanted the party top brass to implement new rule to check concentration of power in one family and to provide opportunity for those who were striving hard in the party without expectations. A family must have only one post such as MLA, MP, Rajya Sabha member, chairman post in any boards or corporations or party post. "I will write to Prime Minister Narendra Modi and BJP National President J.P. Nadda. Time has come to end dynastic politics and to give corruption-free governance," he added.

Training guns on the CM, he said that he would give a list of family members of Yediyurappa who were in various posts. The High Command must stick to 'One family One post' rule and clip powers of the CM's family and distribute it among party workers. "The party workers are not there to carry leaders on their head in procession. You groom them. I do not have any personal interest in it and will not force anybody to make them Ministers," he said.

Commenting on the separate meetings held by disgruntled BJP Legislators, the former Union Minister said "I do not know who has held meeting with whom. Those who rose the topic of CD, must close the chapter. I neither opened the CD issue nor going to close it. I am not aware who will pacify whom, but I have the capacity to placate them. Issue or controversy has not died down yet post Cabinet expansion. I am not afraid of anybody and will continue to talk what I want. None can stop me."

On Honnali BJP MLA M.P. Renukacharya's visit to Delhi to meet party top brass, Yatnal said "I am not aware why Renukacharya went to Delhi and against whom did he complain. Why the High Command must own responsibility when it did not have any say in recent Cabinet reshuffle.

The power was vested with the CM and he has selected MLAs to become the Ministers. Elders must sacrifice and involve in party building works. New faces and youngsters must be given chance as Ministers. The same has been told by BJP MLA Shivanagouda Nayak which is perfectly correct," he added.

Online marketplace
for Channapatna Toys on cards

Yaduveer and Trishikha impressed by eco-friendly wooden marvels

Mysuru, Jan. 23 (MTY&BCT)-Scion of erstwhile Mysore royal family Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar and his wife Trishikha Kumari Wadiyar said that they will create an online marketplace for the promotion of GI-tagged Channapatna toys.

The small town produces dolls made of wood, tiny wooden utensils, brightly lac-coloured birds and animals. Hand-crafted and hand-painted by skilled craftsmen, these figurines were once popular all over India. But sadly, with changing times, this industry is on the decline. What sets these toys apart from other innovative toys is that they are eco-friendly — they are made of non-toxic vegetable colour dyes.

Visiting the Craft Park located near Mahadeshwara Temple on Thursday, Yaduveer and his wife told reporters that the online market will be provided to toy-makers of Channapatna.

"We have initiated the process of online promotion and we both feel that such a platform would help toy-makers reach out to markets in other States and even abroad as they are safe for children, eco-friendly and indigenous. The online marketplace will have branding of Mysore royal family as Wadiyars are known for their patronage to Channapatna toys," Yaduveer said.

He added that the name of the online platform would be announced soon. "Such measures are needed to popularise the art form and give the local artisans the much-needed boost to promote and market their unique art works," he said.

The range of toys include toys, trains, small vintage cars, animals, and other items like beads, key-chains, wall-hangers, earrings, decorative boxes, pencil stands, miniature musical instruments to chess boards, tableware, jewellery, lamps and vases and more.

The artisans use their own innovative methods and advanced tools to make toys and they use ivory wood. These trees are available aplenty in and around Ramanagara district and the wood is light weight suitable to make lighter toys.

Craft Park Manager Shanthaiah showed around the outlet to Yaduveer couple and told them how the toy industry that was actively promoted by Wadiyars has seen a decline of late. Trishikha even tried her hands out in painting the toys.

Lions Summit tomorrow
to focus on Lake Development

Mysuru, Jan. 23 (RKB&BCT)-International Association of Lions Clubs District 317 has organised a regional summit on Jan. 24 from 9 am to 1 pm at GLN Convention Hall on Bogadi Road. The theme of the conference is development and conservation of lakes.

N. Jayaramu of the summit's reception committee said that District Minister S.T. Somashekar will inaugurate the Lions Region 3 regional summit and the meet will focus on conserving the existing water bodies.

Environmentalist Prasanna N. Gowda will be the main speaker while Lions Region 3 Chairman Jayakumar will preside.

The International Association of Lions Clubs District 317 has rejuvenated Kongalli Mallikarjuna Kalyani at eastern part of Lalithadripura at an estimated cost of Rs. 1.50 lakh. After rejuvenation, the Kalyani has been handed over to villagers.

As part of the summit theme, the lake and Kalyani attached to Basaveshwara Temple near Bandipalya Junction on Nanjangud Road would be restored and will be handed over to the villagers. The Temple too will be renovated and will be located by the side of the lake and a park will be formed along with plantation of native trees, he said.

An action plan with an estimate of Rs. 20 lakh has been formed and the rejuvenation process has already been initiated, Jayaramu added.

Hero Women's Pro Golf Tour

Mysuru's Pranavi Urs retains title

Chennai, Jan. 23- Mysuru's promising teenage golfer Pranavi Urs came up with a stunning four-under 68 on the final day to retain her title in the second leg of the Hero Women's Pro Golf Tour at the TNGF Cosmo Golf Course here yesterday.

Having started three shots behind leader Hitaashee Bakshi, the 17-year-old Mysurean came up with a brilliant display on the back nine for a two-shot victory over the 16-year-old rookie. While Pranavi finished with a three-day total of four-under 212, Hitaashee (73) ended up with two-under 214, one ahead of last week's winner, Ridhima Dilawari (71).

Pranavi did not have the best of starts, but found her rhythm and range by the time she walked up to the ninth tee. With bogeys on the second and sixth holes and a birdie on the par-3 fifth, set up by a fine 8-iron, the Mysuru golfer was still one over for the tournament. She nailed the flag on the par-3 ninth to get to even-par for the tournament.

Thereafter, there was no stopping Pranavi. She holed a 20-foot birdie putt on the 11th hole to take the lead for the first time.

Hitaashee, who bogeyed the sixth, seventh and 10th holes, levelled on the 13th hole.

However, Hitaashee's bogey on the 14th gave Pranavi the lead and the Mysuru girl sealed the title with birdies on the 16th and 18th holes.

Pranavi Urs proudly displaying the prize-winning cheque of Rs.1,30,000.

"It feels good to win and doubly great to retain my title," said Pranavi Urs, who won at the very same course on her maiden start as a Pro last February.

A product of JWGC (Jayachamaraja Wadiyar Golf Club) and a member who plays and practices for 8 hours everyday, Pranavi has done Mysuru proud by her feat. Presently, she is coached by Australian Steven Giuliano, who is based in Malaysia and trained at Invictus Bengaluru for her fitness and nutrition.

Pranavi Urs is the daughter of Kaivalya Urs and Sharath Chandra Raj Urs, residing at Lakshmipuram in Mysuru.

Incidentally, another Mysurean Paramjit Singh, R&A Certified Tournament Administrator and Gold Rules Official, was the tournament referee along with Sundar from Chennai.

The tournament was held under strict COVID restrictions and nobody except officials were allowed to walk on the golf course.

Final scores (after 54 holes)

212: Pranavi Urs (72, 72, 68); 214: Hitaashee Bakshi (71, 70, 73); 215: Ridhima Dilawari (75, 69, 71); 216: Jahanvi Bakshi (69, 75, 72); 218: Neha Tripathi (71, 78, 69), Oviya Reddi (73, 71, 74); 219: Sneha Singh (A, 72, 76, 71) and Avani Prashanth (A, 72, 72, 75).

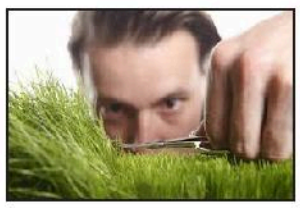
WORD OF THE DAY

Pedantic



Pronunciation: pi-ˈdan-tik.
Meaning: Of, relating to, or being a pedant; narrowly, stodgily, and often ostentatiously learned; unimaginative, dull.
Origin: In William Shakespeare's day, a pedant was a male school teacher. The word's meaning was close to that of the Italian pedante, from which the English word was adapted. Someone who was pedantic was simply a tutor or teacher. But some instructional pedants of the day must have been pompous and dull because by the early 1600s both pedant and pedantic had gained extended senses referring to anyone who was obnoxiously and tediously devoted to their own academic acumen. When describing arguments, pedantic can be used for instances where one relies too heavily on minor details as a way to show off one's intelligence.
Example: "It is always very difficult to know how to pronounce [the name van Gogh]—it's not easy for someone English or American, we just don't have that sound. Then it sounds pedantic if you insist on the Dutch pronunciation." — Martin Bailey, quoted on CNN, 7 Feb. 2020.

THE ODD WORD

Palamate

Having webbed feet.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Pass the buck

Meaning: To 'pass the buck' is to evade responsibility by passing it on to someone else.
Origin: Look up 'buck' in the dictionary and you'll find a couple of dozen assorted nouns, verbs and adjectives. The most common use of the word these days is as the slang term for the American dollar. That's not the buck that's passed here though. Look a little further down the list and you'll find the definition 'buck: an article used in a game of poker' - and that's the buck that was first passed. Poker became very popular in America during the second half of the 19th century. Players were highly suspicious of cheating or any form of bias and there's considerable folklore depicting gun-slingers in shoot-outs based on accusations of dirty dealing. In order to avoid unfairness the deal changed hands during sessions. The person who was next in line to deal would be given a marker. This was often a knife, and knives often had handles made of buck's horn - hence the marker becoming known as a buck. When the dealer's turn was done he 'passed the buck'. Silver dollars were later used as markers.
